APPEALING TO THE LAW THEY SCORNE.

The spectacle of the Industrial Workers of the World, who are being housed and fed at Columbus, N. M., at the expense of the American people, appealing to the authorities for protection and for troops to escort them back and protect them at Bisbee, is just what might have been expected. These people never lose an opportunity to show their contempt for the law; they are opposed to the American system of government; their spokesmen declare loudly that they have no interest in the war further than to use it for their own selfish advantage; they are anarchists, and they glory in their contempt for all orderly government; they preach sabotage and destruction of the property of others; they threaten to burn up the wheat crops of the nation and bring about a famine in the land. And yet, with this record fresh in the minds of the public, these people do not hesitate, when they think their own rights have been violated, to call upon the law they scorned, to call upon the very government they were so lately threatening to overturn; they even call upon the army—which they constantly denounce as an instrument of tyranny—to reinstate them in the homes from whence they were driven by an outraged populace.

They will appeal to the courts, they say, and ask for damages from those who had a hand in driving them from the community they threatened with ruin. They will demand justice.

It were ever thus. These people have a contempt for the law only when the law is to stand up for their own doctrines when the law and for the government when their own hides are in danger. They are anarchists only so far as they think anarchy will further their own interests. They would divide up the property of others—but anything that jeopardizes their own rights and comfort, they insist, shall be prevented, and prevented promptly, by a government they are bent upon abolishing.

They are a sneaking, whining set of scoundrels, without even sufficient principle to stand up for their own doctrines when the pinch comes. The law requires that they shall be protected, and doubtless they will be protected, but some way should be speedily found of dealing with them as they deserve. The enemy aliens among them should be weeded out and sent to internment camps; aliens of allied or neutral nations should be deported to their own countries. The American citizens in their ranks should be given an opportunity to behave like loyal citizens should behave in time of war, and if they persist in their seditious conduct they should be punished as traitors. This I. W. W. thing has gone far enough. It has long passed the stage of a nuisance and is fast becoming a menace. The government should wake up and take such action as will render unnecessary such uprisings of a patriotic but exasperated citizenry as occurred in Bisbee and the Warren district of Arizona last week.

There has been considerable talk of holding a mass meeting of citizens to consider the strike situation and to take some action looking toward bringing about an early resumption of operations in the district. The citizens no doubt would be perfectly willing to take steps in such a direction, by and with the consent of both parties to the present labor controversy. Until such intimidation is received from one side or the other, we believe such a meeting would be an idle waste of time and the motives of such meeting be misconstrued. Contrary to conditions prevalent in other strike effected districts law and order reigns supreme here. Threats, overt acts and intimidation are so far unknown. The Sheriff and his deputies are pursuing a fair and even course observing strictly their oath of office, no more and no less. Any interference or independent action by any group or organization would be entirely uncalled for and ill advised at this time.

No mention is made in the dispatches telling of the bombing of the Krupp plant at Essen by French airmen, of the death of women and children, so we may expect a statement from Berlin minimizing the damage.

ENDORSES ACTION OF SHERIFF WHEELER

Col. Fred S. Breen in charge of the selective draft in Arizona yesterday sent a congratulatory telegram to Captain Harry Wheeler in which he said in part: "You are to be congratulated on your excellent work done at Bisbee, and I want to as an American citizen say you are the 'real thing.' I agree with your actions, America for Americans sounds good to me."

TWO BOARDS PASS ON EXEMPTION CLAIMS

PHOENIX, July 7.—Boards of review which are to pass on the exemption claims of the men from Arizona who will form a part of the first national army have been organized in every county in the state except Graham. In all cases the officials who formed the boards of registration have accepted service on the boards of review. In case the sheriff, health officer, and recorder of Graham county fail to accept appointment as members of the board of review for that county, the president will appoint others, at the recommendation of the governor.

District appeal boards will be selected by the president from lists of men already in his possession. The headquarters of District No. 1 is Phoenix and of District No. 2, Tucson. Appeals from the decisions of the local boards will be decided by these boards and their decision is final.

Within a few days word is expected from Washington setting a date for the convening of these boards of review to hear exemption claims, rules for which have been received.

In a statement accompanying the announcement of the regulations President Wilson calls upon the boards to do their work fearlessly and impartially and to remember that "our armies at the front will be strengthened and sustained if they are composed of men free from any sense of injustice in their mode of selection."

Mrs. D. L. Bouse was down from Morenci yesterday for a short visit with her husband.
